PNG-KLS-SPLC REUNION Sept 30 - Oct 3, 2021

Newsletter #7 October 2020

Hello Wontoks

The October 16th ZOOM GATHERING was a success!

There were 46 who pre-registered and 50 who participated, including several spouses. It was great to see old familiar faces as well as meet new people.

Ruth Van Reken's presentation on "Third Culture Kids Living in Paradox", and her thoughtful responses to questions and comments, was well-received. People really enjoyed their small group discussions, and our wontok Jonathan Frerichs proved the perfect facilitator, as we knew he would from past experience.

As promised, here is the video of the Zoom session, thanks to Mark Singh-Hueter, who hosted, managed, and recorded it.

Click on the link below to access it on our PNG/KLS/SPLC website.

Watch for information about our next Zoom. With the positive feedback so far, we are already planning another gathering for early next year. If you have feedback about this Zoom Gathering or ideas for future Zooms, send Dianne Tuff an email at dianneupfront@gmail.com

Leon Philippi photo - Kids Going To Wau (July 1964)

In 2010, Karen McCann Hett was searching the ALC archives and found this photo. She shared it with Rita Jericho Jahnke and Mary Estergreen Johnson to identify all the children. After they worked on it, they shared it with the larger group via email.

There are 2 hidden girls; one behind Adele Radke is possibly Jenny Brandt. The other is behind Ann Theile and is possibly Debbie Meuser.

Our reunion website now has its own name and its pretty simple - just 'pngklssplc.org'. You might want to bookmark it for easy access. Click on the link below to access information on all things reunion, including photos like the one above of children going to Wau.
