WOKABOUT WANTAIM WANTOKS

Livestream Option

September 10-20, 2025

GREETINGS WANTOKS

The much anticipated trip to PNG with George Weiblen is scheduled to start on September 10th. Jonathan Frerichs will also be going and both men plan to share their experiences with the wantoks at the reunion in October.

Following is a message from Prof. George Weiblen.

Are you interested in joining a daily livestream from PNG during September 10-20?

Professor George Weiblen, accompanied by TCK Jonathan Frerichs and Pastor Maling Rimandai (Good Shepard Lutheran High School) will travel to PNG communities in support of local cultural and biodiversity renewal. Our tour of Madang, Nagada, Amele, Baitabag, and Middle Ramu aims to introduce the work of the Binatang Center in PNG rural communities. We will engage with current efforts that focus on sustainable livelihoods and healthy forests.

You can support our effort by joining the daily livestream, tentatively 7-8 pm US Central Time during September 10-20. We plan to use Zoom through new satellite internet technology, to share our remote location and to introduce you to PNG community members and colleagues in real time. It should be interesting!

Use this link to sign up for the live-stream and/or to indicate your willingness to contribute toward this project.
