Event Logistics & Atmosphere

Casual Time & Schedule

- 78% (31 respondents) felt the amount of casual time was "About right."
- 23% (9 respondents) felt there was "Too little" time.
- Comments: Multiple attendees suggested a less busy schedule, longer meal times (more than 20 minutes), and more "open time" to visit without missing programs.

Silent Auction

- Yes, enjoyed it: 31 respondents (78%)
- Did not participate/enjoy: 8 respondents (20%)
- Comments: Participants enjoyed the variety of items and the "friendly bidding wars," though one suggested it takes significant volunteer effort that might be better spent elsewhere.

Venue: Mt. Olivet Retreat Center

- Feedback: Overwhelmingly positive regarding the setting, food quality, and staff friendliness.
- Issues: Minor complaints included coffee machines being unavailable at times, buildings/chapel being locked too early or requiring assistance, and short meal service windows.

Future Planning Insights

Reunion Interval Preference

- 2 Years: 16 votes. Rationale: "We are aging," "Want to stay connected."
- 3 Years: 13 votes. Rationale: "Travel/financial burden for overseas guests," "Give the committee a break."

Volunteer Interest

- While some (10) noted they are unable to help, 6 respondents expressed a general willingness to help "wherever needed," and a few identified specific interests in programming and communications. Other respondents did not reply to this question.

Recommendations for Next Reunion

1. Simplify the Schedule: Consider reducing the number of programmed events slightly to allow for extended meal times and more organic social interaction.
2. Coffee & Amenities: Ensure coffee is available consistently throughout the day and clarify access to buildings/chapel during late hours.
3. Hybrid Approach to Interval: Since the vote is close, the committee might consider continuing the 2-year interval if a simpler, less labor-intensive format is adopted to reduce burnout, or move to 3 years to accommodate international travelers.
